

NEW YORK.

THE EXCITEMENT INTENSE PREPARATION FOR TO-DAY'S CONFLICT.

The Pendletonians Deeply
Mortified.

THE CURRENT FOR HANCOCK IRRESISTIBLE.

NEW YORK TRYING TO TURN IT.

They Are Ready for Chase,
Who Will Have the Second Place.

MIDNIGHT.

Hancock's Friends Less
Sanguine.

Belief That Their Golden Opportunity Has Passed.

THE KENTUCKIAN AND PEN-DELETON.

Gen. Preston Makes the Break.

The Nomination Expected To-day.

Official Telegraphic Correspondence of the Lon-gville Courier.

New York—The excitement of to-day was more intense to-night. Every detection of treachery and perfidy for the confederates
was followed by a shout of triumph. Every mortification at his defeat, and bitter and flagitious
at the alleged treachery of Pendleton's, urged the rebels to the last.

The displayed power glorified in most daring, and when his rot till off, for it was palpitating he was lost when the break occurred.

SAKURAS.

Mr. Davis, Hancock, and it was supposed by all that the combination of the latter would be shortly made by astigmatism, but Oslo withdrew his support. New York went to work vainly to prevent this combination, and finally succeeded in getting the nomination of Pendleton to defeat the hostilities, when the race
for Hancock is inevitable.

New York is attempting a combination to defeat Pendleton, and to do this, it is said they are only for Chase and the others, but it is in their power, I adhere to the belief that they are still for Hancock.

THE SECOND PLACE.

It is not impossible, however, or otherwise,
Hancock's prospects are very flattering.

LAKE.

JULY 8—Midnight.

New York demands more victories. The best friends with Chase, and the other men of merit. Chase, they have shamed themselves, and now want Hancock's blood. They may succeed, for their combinations are powerful.

HANCOCK'S FRIENDS

are less sanguine at the hour of midnight. They could have no say and may have but the vetoed to-morrow.

Those seen were Charles O'Connor. He will be named to-morrow.

PENDLETON'S FRIENDS

are less sanguine at the hour of midnight. They want to see Hancock in the Chair, but they are not in a position to do so.

THE KENTUCKIAN.

In the Kentucky delegation there was a conspiracy to defeat the cause they should serve to-morrow.

Some of Preston's impracticable friends still want to see him, though he is dead.

one was led of Hancock in the delegation to-day, and carried off. The other had refused to surrender Pendleton, until all hope was lost. About seven will go for Hancock. Unholy, of Bowing tree, is for Chase, outright.

ST. LOUIS.

Brother of Ground for the Atlantic
and Pacific Railroad at Springfield, Mo.—Arrival of General Hancock and Stein.

Mr. Lorts, July 8—Ground was broken on the 17th for the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, at Springfield, Mo., the 4th with many festivities. A large number of people were present, including from Kansas and Arkansas. Mr. W. H. Smith, of the Missouri Vice President, removed the flat shovel full of earth, which was supposed to be the symbol of the new road, and the delegation and the citizens of the city, in declining any public demonstration, gave the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad a hearty hand.

THE KENTUCKIAN DELEGATION.

On the 17th, the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad was laid, and the first locomotive, a C. S. Smith, on Broad Street, was nearly destroyed by fire before it was started.

The warhouse contained a considerable quantity of iron, and, as the value of which has not been ascertained, the advocates of the cause, present, Meyer & Farns, was slightly damaged by water.

The Tobacco Fair—List of Premiums
Awarded—Baptist Africa
Entitative.

Mr. Lorts, July 8—The annual tobacco fair was held yesterday at the warehouse of Chase, corner of Market and Twenty-seventh, the entries were numerous, and the competition was severe. The awards were, however, inferior to those of last year.

The premium for the best tobacco
was awarded to Samuel Edwards; second prize to W. D. Ulmer, Bellwood county, Ky.; second prize to W. D. Ulmer, Bellwood county, Ky.

The best tobacco, and the highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

First premium for the best tobacco
of which was awarded to Samuel Edwards; second
prize to W. D. Ulmer, Bellwood county, Ky.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

The building which was burned this morning in Bellwood was not a bonded warehouse,
but a bonded warehouse.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the
highest premium of eating leaf was to W. G. Morris, Cincinnati, and the second premium to Thomas Routh & Co., Cincinnati.

For the best tobacco, and the highest premium of eating